

Tackling the Elephants in Your Boardroom

©2017 Professionals in Philanthropy

there are two reasons
why people don't talk about something:

either
it doesn't mean anything, or
it means everything.

Questions to ponder...

1. What are your limiting beliefs about your Board?
2. What is the biggest elephant in your board room right now? Would your Board Chair agree? What about the rest of your Board?
3. What is one immediate step you can take to move forward in addressing the elephant?
4. What is your organizational culture?
5. How do you create a culture where the elephants are identified and addressed?
6. Are you playing a role in the growth of your board room elephants?
7. What is the opportunity cost of not addressing the elephants?

Professionals in Philanthropy works with Board Chairs, Executive Directors and entire organizations to address their boardroom elephants. To learn more about our custom workshop or bite-sized individual coaching sessions, email us at PiPAdvisor@profinphil.com.

Thanks for your interest! Keep on tackling those elephants...one bite at a time!
